LETTER FROM FR. MARK

Dear Parishioners,

It is with great excitement that I inform you that Courtney Callahan has returned to St. John's after four months of ministry serving the children and families in Engelwood, Chicago.

Courtney has accepted the position of Director of Children's Ministry at St. John's of Lattingtown, effective immediately. She has begun the process of formulating a new Sunday School curriculum for our children and youth. The areas she will concentrate on include a 3 and 4 year old class, a 5 and 6 year old class, a 1st-3rd grade class, and a 4th-6th grade class. In addition, she will help to develop a new Youth Class for grades 6 and higher in the very near future.

Courtney will once again chair our cherished "Christingle" Christmas Pageant, with the Holy Eucharist added to this year's service, on December 24th, at 4:00 p.m.

I would like to especially thank Cathy Biordi for her role as Interim Sunday School coordinator for the last few months.

We look forward to the expansion of our Sunday School program under Courtney's leadership.

Blessings, Fr. Mark

ADOPT-A-FAMILY 2016

St. John's of Lattingtown will once again be participating in Adopt-A-Family this Christmas season. Many families in our communities struggle financially, especially at Christmastime. The Adopt-A-Family for Christmas Program of the Episcopal Diocese of Long Island provides an opportunity to 'adopt' local families for Christmas. Adopt-A-Family has been one of the ways in which caring people have joined together with the ministry of the Diocese of Long Island. This year St. Johns will be providing Christmas gifts for local families in need. We would love your support. Thank you!

SUNDAY SCHOOL NEWS

The Sunday School's Children's Apple Ministry hosted their Adopt-an-Apple fundraiser for The North Shore INN's Thanksgiving dinner. The INN is our local soup kitchen in Glen Cove. On behalf of our parish, Betsy Gahagen with Sarah Blundin and Stephanie Clark prepare a delicious take-home Thanksgiving dinner tote for each family. We raised nearly $400.00 dollars to uplift our neighbors in need.

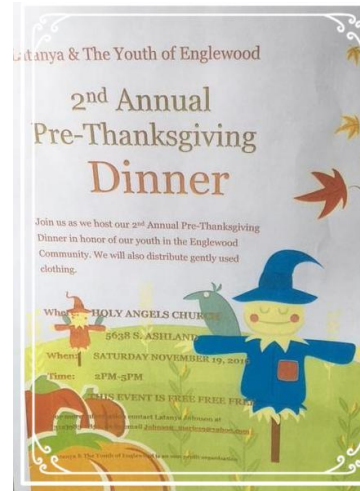

Jett Aston deserves accolades for all his hard work as apple teller-- counting the money and his earnest and heartfelt fundraising on foot during coffee hour! Thank you Aston family for manning the apple ministry table! And so much thanks to the Fredericks and Willard's who did an outstanding job decorating the bags! They were spectacular.

The wrapped apples will go to the South Side of Chicago. LaTanya and the Youth of Englewood 2nd Annual Pre-Thanksgiving Dinner at Holy

Angels
Church
on

November 19th. Cook County Commissioner Richard Boykin has declared the people in Englewood an "endangered population". To know that people from the outside like us care, is meaningful to them beyond words. To send them a handmade symbol of our respect and love is impactful beyond measure.
