Episcopal
Relief & Development

Healing a hurting world

Our brothers and sisters in the Gulf Coast urgently need our help. While many areas have been hit hard by this terrible storm, some of the poorest neighborhoods are seeing the most damage because they're located in low-lying flood areas. We are working around the clock with local clergy members, organizations and churches to distribute funds and gift cards to help families buy supplies, but more is needed. Help us bring much-needed supplies-and compassionate support-to people in the Gulf Coast.

Please go to episcopalrelief.org to donate
