SUNDAY SCHOOL NEWS

Why are we still talking about Christmas in Sunday School?

Because it never ends!

From the minute Jesus drew His first breath --Christmas has never stopped, not even for a second. It means that the love of Jesus Christ is helping us, working in us, lighting us up forever to love one another. Valentine's Day is the perfect opportunity to keep giving the love born on Christmas! In this spirit, the children and youth started a big three week Valentine's outreach. They are transforming their Apple Ministry bags into Valentine's bags for The Glen Cove Senior Center Valentine's Luncheon, The Glen Cove Soup Kitchen, The Glen Cove Men's Shelter and The Finley Middle School Family Food Pantry. On the February 11th, during the 10:30 am and 5 pm Sunday School classes, we will have a big Valentines cookie factory in the Parish Hall. We will decorate heart-shaped sugar cookies which will be added to the bags before we ribbon them and deliver them with the help of Maggie Blundin's Girl Scout Troop!! ~ Miss Courtney
