Our Outreach and Sunday School

Do you ever think about what our kids do after they are confirmed? A lot of good is the answer! Here is Taylor Overstrom the head of NOSHkids holding the most ingenious innovation helping the homeless-NOSHnibbles. She worked very hard on this, finding the most nutrient dense ready to eat non perishables requiring no hot water added or utensils. So proud of her accomplishment - offering nurturing nutrition for those suffering on the streets of Glen Cove from hunger and malnutrition.

Taylor Overstrom holding some of the 100 bags being delivered to the Glen Cove Deli where the owner Renee hands them to the homeless when they pick up their lunch provided by the North Shore Soup Kitchen

In Hempstead: Courtney, our parish friend Antonia Guarra, former warden of St George's, and Candace (who began the care of these homeless men who sleep in back of a grocery store in Hempstead) handing out NOSHnibbles and toiletries.

SUPPLIES FOR SUCCESS

NOSH received this touching message yesterday from Cyndy Ergen, Teaching Assistant at Locust Valley Intermediate School:

Yesterday was an A▪M▪A▪Z▪I▪N▪G Day! After 10 hours, 9,980 steps, we gave away 80 backpacks-still more to go! We saw so many students and families. We also received so many thank-you cards, drawings and few flowers! It was so beautiful, a blessing.

The Locust Valley School District, The Bayville Library, The Locust Valley Library, SVDP, NOSH, our kind community & the amazing association "Supplies for Success" made this dream come true and put so many smiles in our student's faces, under all those masks. Thank you!
¡Gracias!
