OCCUPATION: Mother

The Apple family live in New York City but have been spending summers and weekends in Locust Valley for the last 18 years. Jackie Powers invited our family to come to St John's when the children were little, and ever since it has become our church home in Locust Valley. Being involved in Sunday School, helping with community outreach, working at the St John's Fair, and worshipping at St John's have become part of our family routines. Additionally, Sydney and Annesley were confirmed at St John's last spring. Although a full time mom now, Virginia worked in interior design for 20 years under Brian J McCarthy and David Kleinberg Design Associates, eventually establishing Virginia Apple Design. Now Virginia loves being involved with her children's schools and their community - both in New York and Locust Valley. Virginia graduated from Washington & Lee prior to moving to NY.

Hymns from St John's is an online music series, exploring the stories behind the words and melodies of our 1982 Episcopal Hymnal. Chris' engaging and relaxed presentation encourages us to continue singing from the comfort and safety of our own homes. The recordings are published every Monday on our Facebook page and our website. The current Episode 14 is now available. Please share with your friends and family and remember "to sing is to pray twice". Feedback is welcomed as well as are suggestions for your favorite hymn to be included in a future offering.

Introducing NOSHkids

NOSH kids including Kate Blundin (3rd from right) next to Antonia Guerra, former warden of St George's Episcopal Church in Hempstead (longtime friend of our parish) and Taylor Overstrom (far right).

St John's Youth in Action!

Parishioners Taylor Overstrom and Kate Blundin held a planning meeting at NOSH HQ for their new program- NOSHkids. They are set to announce NOSHnibbles and we are very proud of them! NOSHnibbles are easy carry feezezer bags filled with non-perishable yet nutritional ready to eat foods that require no utensils, washing up or hot water. We will distribute to our homeless friends in Glen Cove and to the people Antonia serves in Hempstead on behalf of FACT ACT a charity that enables the mentally channeled to stay living at home. Their clients suffered when the local pantries closed and they called NOSH for help. Bringing them NOSHbags and NOSHnibbles will help them feel full and loved!
